Anza Principal Leaves Torrance

R. Carl Shaner, principal at Anza Elementary School, Torrance for the past 3 years, Tuesday night submitted his resignation to become administrative assistant in charge of business for the Taft, Calif., School District.

Shaner had headed the program at Anza since it opened in 1957. His successor at Anza for the remainder of summer school is Henry W. Behrens, principal at Arlington Elementary School.

Shaner had been employed in Torrance since 1952. He served as a teacher at Riviera and as a vice principal at Riviera and Fern-Greenwood Schools. He held a bachelor's degree from Pepperdine and a master's degree at USC. He also was doing further work at USC.

With his wife, Ruth, and four children, he lived at 20920 Brighton Ave., Torrance. Journalists Arrive: An advance contingent of the 350 editors, correspondents, engineers, cameramen and technicians assigned by NBC News to cover the national conventions arrived in Chicago today to prepare for the Republican sessions opening in the International Amphitheatre Monday, July 25.

Extra Bus Lines

ANNOUNCING A NEW BUS STATION FOR DOWNTOWN TORRANCE...

The New Bus Station will be located at El Prado and Cabrillo Ave. in Downtown Torrance (across from the Pacific Electric Depot).

Torrance will celebrate the opening of its new bus station Thursday, July 21, at 10 a. m. Many Torrance notables will be present at the Ribbon Cutting ceremonies. Torrance Councilman J. A. Beasley, Chairman of the Transportation Committee, jubilantly exclaimed, "When Mayor Isen cuts the ribbon, we will have started on the way to preparing Torrance as the operator of a First Class Bus Line."

The Downtown Retail Merchants Division of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce has been actively campaigning for a downtown station, expressed its appreciation thru its spokesman, Abe Robinson of Lawson's Jewelers, "We are celebrating this event by giving away free balloons at the ceremonies, and we welcome all to attend and partake of the festivities."

Let's hear how Mr. Marshall Chamberlain, Superintendent of the Torrance Municipal Bus Lines, describes the new Bus Station: "We now have a shelter waiting room for bus riders. A large map and schedule will be conspicuously posted for the public so that transfer and connections may be made with a minimum of delay."
